

AFL Multicultural Female Uniform Guidelines

This uniform guideline aims to show the different options for girls and women to participate in AFL in Western Australia.

OPTION A

- Club uniform shorts and jersey
- Long club socks

OPTION B

- Club uniform shorts and top
- Long sleeve skins / top underneath top – can be all black or club approved colour
- Full length skins leggings under shorts in all black or club approved colour

OPTION C

- Long sleeve jersey
- Full length skins leggings under shorts in all black or club approved colour
- Head covering in all black or club approved colour

Head coverings

Players must not wear anything that is dangerous to themselves or another competitor. This includes no jewellery and no sharp pins on head coverings (hijabs).

- If the head covering needs to be fastened, clips and non-sharp pins are to be used.
- Head covering must be all black or club colours.
- Head covering must not be attached to the shirt.

Additional information:

- Additional clothing options are for cultural / religious modifications only.
- Extra clothing must be the same colour approved by the club.
- Extra clothing must be worn under existing team uniform.

This document is endorsed and supported by

Disclaimer: This document was prepared in consultation with WA Football Commission (WAFC) with a view to assist culturally and linguistically diverse women participate safely in sport at club level. Sport and Recreation (WA), its officers and employees, and any authors or contributors to this guide are not responsible for, and disclaim all liability in connection with, any personal injury or death howsoever caused (including where caused by negligence) arising from following the uniform options or statements contained in this document. This document is a guide only and to exercise caution when choosing attire to ensure they can participate safely in the activity. If you have any questions in relation to the guide please contact your State Sporting Association directly – WAFC on 9381 5599.